No. 14.—It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned jodi village, [redacted] has been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in subjoined statement) by the said jodidars will be sold by public auction at the place and on the date mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the date specified, and the village will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognized vrittis, the Deputy Commissioner may, at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter, or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, before the property is knocked down or gives satisfactory proof that the amount of arrears, &c., has been paid up, or furnishes security under Section 170 of the Mysore Land Revenue Code.

7. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed, be placed in immediate possession and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

8. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Dewan within 90 days from the day of sale and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.

No. A. The 23rd May 1890.

Whereas under para V of Notification No. 107, dated 5th September 18[illegible] Highness the Maharaja's Government have decided to restrict the area in respe[illegible] which mining leases are to be granted, to 2,410 acres for the current year, and whereas more than one application have been received for a mining lease in respect of each of the blocks of land described in the Schedule A hereunto appended, and the Government have decided to grant a mining lease for each of the blocks aforesaid for such premium as can be obtained therefor by public competition, tenders for the leases aforesaid are hereby invited subject to the following conditions :—

I. Each tender must specify the particular block of land for which the tender is made and the amount of premium which the applicant is prepared to pay for the lease of that block, the terms of the lease being those specified in the Form B hereunto appended. The amount of premium must be stated either in pounds sterling or in rupees but it shall not be less than Rs. 1,000 for any one block.

II. Each tender must be accompanied by a deposit equal to 10 per cent of the amount of premium tendered, the amount of deposit being paid to the credit of the Dewan of Mysore, into any Government Treasury in Mysore or any Presidency Bank in India or to Messrs. Coutts and Co., 59 Strand, London, and the receipt obtained for such payment being forwarded with the tender.

III. The tender must be in the Form C appended to this Notification.

IV. The tender with the receipt obtained for payment of the deposit under para II above, must be enclosed in a cover duly sealed and superscribed with the words "Tender for Mining Lease," and addressed to the Dewan of Mysore, Bangalore.

V. The tenders must reach the Dewan on or before noon on the 25th August 1890, when they will be opened at the Dewan's Office, Bangalore, in the presence of such of the applicants as may be present.

VI. The final disposal of the tenders will rest with the Dewan, who reserves to himself full power to reject the highest or any tender without assigning any reason.

VII. The applicant whose tender is accepted must, within 30 days of such acceptance being communicated to him, pay into any Government Treasury in Mysore, or any Presidency Bank in India, or to Messrs. Coutts and Co., London, to the credit of the Dewan of Mysore, the balance of the amount of the premium offered in the tender.

VIII. The names of the successful tenderers will be published in the Government Gazette, with a description of the blocks for which their tenders are accepted.

IX. The deposits made by the tenderers whose tenders are rejected will be returned to them on their application.

X. The applicant whose tender has been accepted will be allowed to locate the block of land within the limits specified in the appended Schedule A, at any time before the execution of the lease, but he shall, within six months after payment of the balance of premium as laid down in para VII above, offer for execution by the Dewan acting on behalf of the Government, a duly stamped lease in the Form B hereunto appended.

XI. Should the successful tenderer fail to pay the balance of the premium as laid down in para VII, or to offer for execution a lease as laid down in para X, the deposit or other sums paid by the applicant to the credit of the Dewan up to the date of such default shall be forfeited to the Government, and the lands in respect of which such payments had been made shall be at the absolute disposal of the Government.

XII. A copy of the maps of the British Topographical Survey of Mysore (scale 1 mile to the inch) showing the situation of the blocks mentioned in Schedule A, are maintained in the Dewan's Office, Bangalore, and will be open, free of charge, to the inspection of the public on application to the Under-Secretary.
